

Grade 5 - Science Week 2025

For science we have been learning all about planets in our solar system. In groups we have worked together and researched to find out all different facts ab`out the planets and our solar system. We also wrote speeches about our groups assigned planets and presented them on science week parade and to show what the planets look like up close we made paper mâché planets and painted them to represent the actual colour of the planet in space.

by Ariya, Chelsea and Ivy

